Numb. 473.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From December 29. to January 3. 1737.

LONDON, October 19.

To the KING's moſt Excellent MAJESTY,

The humble Petition of the Merchants and Traders, in behalf of themſelves and others, Trading to and Intereſted in the Britiſh Colonies in America.

SHEWETH,

THAT the fair and lawful Trade of your Majeſty's Subjects to the Britiſh Plantations in America, hath been greatly interrupted, for many Years paſt, not only by their Ships having been frequently ſtopp'd and ſearch'd, but alſo forcibly and arbitrarily ſeiz-ed on the High Seas, by Spaniſh Ships fitted out to Cruiſe, under the plauſible Pretence of Guarding their own Coaſts; that the Commanders thereof, with their Crews, have been inhumanely treated, and their Ships carried into ſome of the Spaniſh Ports, and there condemned with their Cargoes, in manifeſt Violation of the Treaties ſubſiſting between the two Crowns.

That notwithſtanding the many Inſtances made by your Majeſty's Miniſters at the Court of Madrid, againſt this injurious Treatment, the late and repeated Inſults of the Spaniards, upon the Perſons and Properties of your Majeſty's Subjects, lay your Petitioners under the neceſſity of applying again to your Majeſty for Relief.

That by theſe violent and unjuſt Proceedings of the Spaniards, the Trade to your Majeſty's Plantations in America, is render'd very Precarious; and if any Nation be ſuffer'd thus to inſult the Perſons of your Majeſty's Subjects, and Plunder them of their Property, your Petitioners apprehend it will be attended with ſuch an Obſtruction of that valuable Branch of Commerce, as will be very fatal to the Intereſt of Great Britain.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray your Majeſty, that your Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to procure ſpeedy and ample Satisfaction to your Subjects, for the Loſſes they have ſuſtained; that no Britiſh Veſſel be detained or ſearched on the High Seas by any Nation, under any Pretence whatſoever, and that the Trade to America may be rendered ſure for the future, by ſuch Meaus as your Majeſty in your great Wiſdom ſhall think fit.

And your Petitioners ſhall ever Pray, &c.

Yeſterday about 5 o'Clock in the Afternoon, 70 of the Weſt-India Merchants went up, in order to attend the Committee of Council, appointed to examine the Complaints of the Merchants concerning the Captures of the Spaniards.

On Tueſday Night when the Merchants waited on the Lords of the Council, after they had declared their Grievances, (ſupported by inconteſtable Evidences) their Lordſhips informed them, that they would report the ſame to his Majeſty; who no doubt would take Care that all who have been injur'd ſhould have Satisfaction made.

Various are the Opinions concerning the Depredations of the Spaniards on our Ships lately, ſome affirming that the Cauſe of ſuch a Procedure of the Dons proceeds from our Ships having Contraband Goods on board, ſuch as Log-wood, Pieces of Eight, &c. and others, that any Pretence ſerves for that Purpoſe, while they (the Spaniards) imagine they may do it with Impunity: The more moderate affirm, that if the Merchants in general, in that trade, would make appear, that the Spaniards act, as they have done, without any real Cauſe of Complaint, Redreſs would be immediately, and properly, demanded by our Court. And until our Merchants do ſo, we muſt expect to hear of ſuch Treatment from the Spaniards, who never have been, nor will be ſincere Friends to Great Britain.

We hear from Briſtol, that their Weſt-India Merchants will make Application to his Majeſty, after the Example of thoſe of London, touching the frequent Inſults and Captures of the Spaniards on their Ships.

Briſtol, Octo. 15. The Advice we had by Thurſday's Papers, that Letters of Mart would be granted to the London and Briſtol Merchants, to make Repriſals on the Spaniards for their long Run of Depredations on their Ships, has given a pleaſing Satisfaction, and what is very much wiſh'd for; and as our Galleys were famous in the late War for Prime Sailors, and Bravery of the Men, in taking ſo many Prizes, 'tis believ'd Jack Spaniard will not find that Spirit abated by the long Interval of Inaction, our Sailors in general longing heartily to exchange a few Broad ſides.

The coming in of the Autumn Seaſon proves very unwholſome to great Numbers of People in the City, and the Neighbouring Parts, attributed to the much dull wet Weather we have lately had: they are taken in a ſudden Manner with a feveriſh Diſorder, attended with Pains in the Head, Back, Stomach, and ſore Throats; but for the general part they recover in three, four, or five Days, it proving mortal to none that we hear of.

London, Octo. 2. Letters from Conſtantinople, by way of Venice, report, that the Grand Signior and the whole Divan are greatly inclined to carry on the War with Ruſſia; that the taking of Oczakow by the Ruſſian Army had inraged the Inhabitants of Conſtantinople to ſuch a degree, that there had been an Inſurrection in that City; that the Shops were ſhut up, and the People fearing the worſt had ſtored themſelves with Proviſions for many Days; that the Government, in order to appeaſe the Tumult, had thrown the Blame upon the Grand Vizier, and removed him from his Employment, but that the Populace, not content with a ſingle Sacrifice, had violently dragg'd two Ruſſian Officers, who were Priſoners, out of their Apartments, and cut off their Heads.

Prince Lubomirski, Palatine of Cracow, who is one of the richeſt Lords in Poland, beſides being poſſeſs'd of a vaſt Eſtate in Hungary, has offer'd his Imperial Majeſty to raiſe three Regiments among his own Vaſſals, to be employed in his Service, in the Turkiſh War.

The Hereditary Prince of Modena, who is the only Voluntier of Diſtinction that remained in the Army, has ſignalized himſelf at the Attack at Uſitza, which was obſtinately defended for ſome time by the Turks. The Left Sleeve of his Coat was carried away by a Faulcon Shot, and a Grenadier was killed by his Side. That Prince is univerſally admired and eſteemed by the whole Army, as well for his Gallant Behaviour in the Field, as for his generous and obliging Carriage out of it.

His Imperial Majeſty, in order to carry on the War next Campaign with the utmoſt Vigour, has reſolved to take into his Pay 30,000 Men of ſeveral Princes of Europe.

It is reported, that Commiſſary General Neſſelroth, and the Generals Leutrum and Charles Palfi are dead in Hungary.

Letters this Poſt from Paris bring the following remarble Article, which is as much to be depended upon as Accounts from that Quarter generally are.

'It is confirmed that the Court has received an Expreſs 'from Poland, with the News, that a Body of 30,000 'Ruſſian Troops commanded by General Laſci, had been 'defeated and cut to pieces by the Turks, with the Loſs 'of all their Cannon and Baggage; and that Count Laſci 'himſelf had been taken Priſoner.

M. Peloux, the French Commiſſary, is arrived at Genoa, from whence he is to ſet out directly for the Iſland of Corſica, to lay up Magazines for the Troops his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty intends to ſend thither, ſome ſay; but others pretend, it is to perſwade the Malecontents to lay down their Arms, and quietly ſubmit to the Republick, upon Conditions, which he himſelf will be the Guarantee of, and ſee faithfully performed.

There are Letters in Town which give an Account that the Plague was broke out and raged violently in the Levant, and that in ſome Places Ships have been obliged to perform Quarentine.

Edinburg, Octo. 10. We have a very merry Account from Angus, of a certain Spark whom the Miniſter was abſolving from the Repenting Stool, after the ordinary Times of Appearance, for the Sin of Fornication, viz. That after the Parſon had declared his Satisfaction with his Repentance, and given him the Abſolution, the Youth turned the Chaſe, and declared his Diſſatisfaction with the Miniſter on Account of his not obeying the Law, by reading the Act for bring to Juſtice the Murderers of Capt. Porteous; adding, that he would for once read it for him, which he did accordingly. This odd Behaviour, however, 'tis ſaid, was received by the Congregation with Abundance of good Humour.

His Grace William Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland, His Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, at Dublin, on Tueſday the 4th Day of October, 1737.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

NOthing could be more agreeable to me, than to receive His Majeſty's Commands to meet you in Parliament. The Firmneſs and Zeal which you have ſhewn for the Support of the Proteſtant Religion, and your ſincere and conſtant Attachment to His Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government, give me the Proſpect of an eaſy Adminiſtration: And as his Majeſty's Service, and the Proſperity of this Kingdom are the only Points I have in View, I am fully perſuaded, that this Seſſion cannot fail of proving to the Advantage of the Publick.

I obſerve, with great Pleaſure, how much the Exportation of your Linnen Manufactures have increaſed of late Years; and aſſure you that Nothing ſhall be wanting on my Part, which may contribute to the improving and extending that valuable Branch of your Trade.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered the proper Officers to prepare the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates, to be laid before you; and have nothing in Command from his Majeſty to ask, but the uſual and neceſſary Supplies for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment.

If any further Law could be framed, to put an effectual Stop to that pernicious Practice of Running of Goods, the beneficial Conſequences of it will be found in raiſing the publick Revenues, inleſſening the National Debt, and in giving Encouragement to the fair and honeſt Trader.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is the peculiar Diſtinction of his Majeſty's Subjects, that they have frequent Opportunities of preparing and offering ſuch Laws as they think for the general Good of their Country. This Privilege can never be of greater Advantage than at this Time, when we have a Prince upon the Throne, who conſiders the Intereſt of his Subjects as inſeparable from his own, and is always ready to give his Royal Aſſent to every Act that may promote the Happineſs of his People.

His Majeſty, by chooſing a Princeſs of the moſt eminent Virtues and Accompliſhments, and of an Houſe, foremoſt in the Proteſtant Cauſe, to be Conſort to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, hath given a Proof of his Royal and Paternal Care to continue the Bleſſings of his Reign to our lateſt Poſterity; and the Earneſt, which we have already received from Providence, by the Birth of a Princeſs, opens to us a new Proſpect of a laſting Succeſſion in his Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family.

You may depend upon my moſt hearty Inclinations and beſt Aſſiſtance to ſerve you in every Thing that may contribute to the Security and Welfare of Ireland: And from the full Enjoyment you have had of your Religious and Civil Rights under his Majeſty's mild and moſt gracious Government, I have no Room to doubt, but you will proceed, in all your Deliberations, with ſuch Temper and Unanimity as may be expected from a People who have at all Times ſhewn themſelves moſt affectionate and loyal Subjects.

Dublin, Octob. 6. We have an Account from London, that it was a Scotch Gentleman who kill'd Mr. Wright in Florence: they were both ſo drunk, that it could not be told how the Quarrel aroſe; the Hon. Col. Ponſonby quitted the Company with the Lord Middleſex.

We hear that the City and County of Cork have ſent up a Petition to be preſented to the Hon. Houſe of Commons, in relation to the Gold Coin.

This Day the Sheriffs of this City, at their Court held at the Tholſel, read the Writ for electing of a Citizen to ſerve in Parliament, in the room of Humphry French, Eſq; deceaſed, at which time they adjourned to Monday the 17th Day of this Inſtant October, and then declared that they would proceed and take the Votes of the ſeveral Corporations, according to their Seniority, of which the ſaid Sheriffs have adverтiſed.

Dublin, Octob. 8. On Wedneſday laſt, the Ancient and Loyal Corporation of Weavers of this City, aſſembled in a full Hall of 200 Brethren, unanimouſly agreed that the Right Hon. the Earl of Angleſey ſhould be waited on by their Wardens, and requeſt his Lordſhip would be pleas'd to accept of his Freedom in their Corporation, as a Teſtimony of their Gratitude, and great Eſteem they bear his Lordſhip, for his many particular Services done them in promoting the Manufacture of this Kingdom, and foremoſt in their Intereſt, and the Welfare and Good of the Kingdom in general; and accordingly they preſented his Lordſhip with his Freedom in a Silver Box, which he accepted of and entertained them in their Hall, with an elegant Supper, in a moſt ſplendid manner, being ſerved in his Lordſhip's Plate, and attended with his Lordſhip's Band of Muſick, whilſt the Loyal Healths, and Friends of Ireland with Joy and Pleaſure, were drank plentifully in Claret.

We hear that the Engliſh Colliers, in return for our Kindneſs in paying them ſuch large Sums of Money yearly, are going to build Gabbards (or Lighters) for themſelves, becauſe they neither will employ Iriſh Men nor Iriſh Gabbards. We are alſo informed that theſe Gentry will take no Money for their Coals but Silver. But we hope ſoon to ſee them a little more Complaiſant: Iriſh Coals are a very pleaſant Firing, and will ſoon be very cheap.

Our Correſpondent at Cork writes, the Reduction of the Gold gives our Merchants no ſmall Trouble; but we are all in Expectation of having it rais'd.

Edinburg, Octo. 4. The following is a Copy of the Rev. Mr. Thomas Nairn, Miniſter of the Goſpel at Abbotſhall, his Seceſſion from the Church of Scotland, given in by him to the Preſbytery of Kirkcaldy, upon the 22*d ult.*

WHEREAS I have had Occaſion of late to read and conſider a printed Paper, Entituled, Act, Declaration and Teſtimony, for the Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline and Government of the Church of Scotland, &c. by ſome Miniſters aſſociate together for the Exerciſe of Church Government and Diſcipline

Diſcipline in a Presbyterian Capacity. And finding upon Examination of the ſaid Paper, that this Church and her Judicatures, is deeply involved in a long Courſe of Defection from the Lord; and that in Oppoſition to Solemn Covenant Engagements; That inſtead of adopting the ſaid Teſtimony, or any Attempts towards a Reformation of the Backſlidings therein enumerated, there is a holding them faſt, and refuſing to return unto the Lord: Yea, I cannot help thinking that many Miniſters are willingly walking after the Commandments of Men, proceeding from Evil to worſe, even to the Profanation of God's Day and Worſhip, practically and publickly renouncing the alone Headſhip and Sovereignty of Chriſt in his Church; which Scandals and Offences I now deſpair of ever ſeeing purged, or the guilty Perſons brought under due Cenſure; By which means the whole Lump of the Eſtabliſhed Church, and all in Communion with her, to me ſeems to be leavened.

For theſe and other Reaſons that might be added, I judge it my Duty to declare and proteſt, That I hereby make a Seceſſion from this Presbytery and all ſuperiour Judicatures of this Church, and adhere to the aforeſaid Teſtimony, and thoſe Miniſters and Profeſſors in Scotland who are adhering to the Laws, Statutes, and Prerogatives of Chriſt; and that it ſhall be lawful for me to join with the aforeſaid Miniſters in a Presbyterial Capacity, and that my miniſterial Conduct ſhall be under their Trial and Cognizance. Craving that this my Declaration and Proteſtation be recorded in the Presbytery Books, and I allowed an Extract thereof; and upon the whole of the Premiſſes I take Inſtruments. THO. NAIRN.

London, October 13. Mr, Hill a Domeſtick belonging to his Grace the Duke of Richmond, is appointed Secretary to the Lords Commiſſioners of Trade and Plantations, in the Room of Alured Popple, Eſq; who is appointed Governor of Bermudas.

They write from Francfort, that ſeveral Proteſtant Powers are negotiating a particular Alliance for ſupporting the Intereſts of their Religion, and making new Efforts to obtain the Revocation of the 4th Article of the Treaty of Ryſwick: 'Tis added, that this Alliance will be defenſive, and that the Northern Crowns and the Courts of Germany of the ſame Communion will be invited into it. Several States of the Empire to whom Propoſals were made to contribute towards the Expences of the War againſt the Turks, ſeem not diſpos'd to explain themſelves on that Head, 'till they ſee what ſucceſs the Conferences at Nimirow meet with.

Hampton-Court, October 13. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the following Gentlemen to be Officers in Col. James Oglethorp's Regiment of Foot to be raiſed for the Service and Defence of his Majeſty's Plantations in America, viz. James Cockran, Eſq; Lieutenant Colonel and Captain of a Company; William Cook, Eſq; Major and Captain; Alexander Heron, Richard Norbury, Hugh Mackay, Eſqrs; Captains; Albert Desbriſa, Eſq, Captain Lieutenant.

Vienna, Octob. 12 'Tis aſſur'd that the Court has reſolv'd to hire from ſeveral Princes of the Empire 30,000 Men. Prince Lubomirski has offer'd to raiſe three new Regiments upon his Eſtates in Poland, to be employ'd next Campain in the War againſt the Turks. Prince Chriſtian, of Lobkowitz, is ſet out to take upon him the Command of the Troops in Tranſylvania: From whence the laſt Letters adviſe, that the Turks aſſemble in great Numbers at Bucherеſt in Walachia; and 'twas thought that General Ghilani would be oblig'd entirely to abandon that Province, to prevent his being encompaſs'd by the Infidels. No News has for ſome Days paſt arriv'd from the Army in Hungary. Count Kevenhuller with the Army under his Command, is retir'd towards Orſova. A Man of War, call'd the St. Charles, has been either burnt or taken by the Turks.

London, Octob. 18. The following Affair happen'd lately in the Upper Liberty of Weſtminſter. A Woman, with a Basket under her Arm, was crying as ſhe went along, Bung your Eye; a Beadle hearing her, ſaid, You are retailing ſpirituous Liquors, and I ſhall take you up: The Woman beg'd hard not to be expos'd in the Street, and told him, if he would go into the Houſe ſhe would let him ſee what Liquor ſhe ſold: accordingly they went into an Alehouſe us'd by the Beadle, he went to the Bar to get a Glaſs to taſte the Liquor, which gave the Woman an Opportunity of getting off; the Beadle ſeeing the Basket left, ſtaid to examine that before he run after her, believing that there was Gin in it, and that ſhe had made her Eſcape without it for fear of being ſent to Bridewell; but upon Examination there was nothing found in the Basket but a fine Boy, about a Week old, which was left the Beadle to bung his Eye with, the Woman having got clear off.

BOSTON, December 12.

Laſt Wedneſday Night between 1 and 12 o'Clock we had a very conſiderable Shock of an Earthquake; it laſted near a Minute, but was attended with little or no Noiſe, except jarring of the Windows, Pewter and other moveable Things within the Houſe.
